

TRAINING COURSE

Flight Dispatch Recurrent Training

Introduction

The JAA TO Flight Dispatch Recurrent training establishes a high level of safety and proficiency, by adequate recurrent training to the daily demand's tasks for flight dispatch personnel.

This category of training is for personnel who have been trained and qualified in an Initial Flight Dispatch training and will continue to serve in the same duty position.

This training also complies with the requirements of EASA GM1 ORO.GEN.110 (and related AMC and GM), IOSA ISM DSP 2.1 and DSP table 3.6.

The Recurrent and Initial training is based on competency-based methods according to the new ICAO Manual 10106.
