

TRAINING COURSE

IATA 7.3 - Dangerous Goods Regulations (DGR) for Processing DG Consignments - Recurrent

Introduction

This Training course is for personnel responsible for processing dangerous goods consignments as per IATA DGR section 1.5 and in accordance with CBTA approach for well-defined function 7.3. - Previously covered under category 3.

This course is available as a classroom, Virtual Classroom and on-demand as in-house training.

Key topics

- Legal responsibilities of key stakeholders
- Understanding and applying relevant sections of the current IATA DGR
- Importance of accurate identification and classification of dangerous goods
- Safety implications of packaging types and net quantity limitations
- End-to-end communication of hazards and handling requirements using correct marks and labels
- Radioactive material transportation
- Impact of State and Operator variations on dangerous goods acceptance

COURSE DURATION

Four full days, starting at 9:00 each day and finishing approx. at 17.00 on the first three days. On the fourth day, the course will finish at approximately 16:00.

TARGET GROUP

Professional personnel working in the field of transport of Dangerous Goods by air who are responsible for the process and acceptance of Dangerous Goods Consignments in accordance with the IATA Dangerous Goods

Regulations.

- Personnel working for cargo agents, consolidators and freight forwarders who are responsible for processing dangerous goods consignments from shippers to airlines
- IATA Cargo agent applicants willing to fulfil the training requirements for DGR

Read more about the course Content, Learning Objectives and Pre-requisites on the website:
www.jaato.com